SEALED BID OFFERING. List Price is minimum bid requirement.

Greenbriar Swamp Farm includes 114.32 acres located on Greenbriar Swamp Road in Eden, Maryland. The farm is made up of approximately 93.5 tillable acres and 20.82 wooded acres. It borders state forestland along its west and south boundaries, creating a strong edge for wildlife and privacy. The tracts do not have a conservation easement or an agricultural easement limiting land use.

Soils across the property include Mullica Berryland, Kentuck Silt Loam, Berryland Mucky Loam, and Fallsington series. The ground supports a mix of row crop production, hay, or rotational use. The wooded portion offers timber value and hunting opportunity.

Greenbriar Swamp Farm is located in a stable agricultural area with good access to nearby grain markets. The layout and high percentage of tillable ground make it well suited for an owner-operator, expansion of an existing farm, or an investor seeking long-term land income. No agricultural lease in place and farming rights will convey for 2026. Full bid package available in documents section or through the listing agent.
